SUBJECT.

Continuance of A. Rangaswamy Iyengar as a member of the Insurance Committee

W D 88—GPB—50,000—24.7.16

Note

I think it is very necessary to retain Mr Rangasamaiyar Deputy Comr of Shemoga & his connection with the Insurance Committee. The Committee consists of so many members that I am sure it can act on without any inconvenience even without Mr Rangaswamy Iyengar - He has charge of such a large substantive & distant district that his leaving it once in two months to attend the meetings in Bangalore is a source of positive inconvenience. It would right that a District Officer should be running away from his charge so often. Last time when he was here I understood that some unforeseen events occurred in Shemoga which probably would not have occurred if he had remained there Hng that the Dewan will be pleased to order his relig one from the duties of the Insurance Committee.

4/10/96.

Sri Ramachandra
Rao to the Dewan

The question raised requires further consideration with reference to the information to be furnished by the Committee. The subject is a technical one which Mr Rangaswami Iyengar has made a Subject of Special Study and it would therefore be a pity to dispense with his services on the Committee for some time to come, until the System has passed beyond the present experimental Stage and we have the support of an Actuary's report certifying to its financial Soundness - Moreover Mr Rangaswami Iyengar's occasional attendance at Bangalore for a day cannot interfere much his District work. And until the existing arrangement is altered his Bills shd not have been kept waiting by 14-4-97

I could not sensibly deal with these bills till I knew how my vote had been disposed of.

[illegible]

Mr Rajasansmi Khan has moved his amendment to the third reading of the Bill. I am of opinion however that the Bill is not far from perfect.

The Bills may be passed & returned in this matter the Dewan that Mr Rangaswamy for the time being only as a correspondent & consultative member has not been given effect to. Under these circumstances I think it is time enough for the Dewan to consider this matter again when the interests of the Settlement Department require the services of the members of the Committee. I should like to know from how many meetings Mr. Rangaswamy absented himself contemplated by the Dewan in his order of June 1895.
